International Labour Day 2021: Why May 1 is celebrated as Worker's Day?

History of Labour Day

In 1889, the Marxist International Socialist Congress adopted a resolution for a great international demonstration in which they demanded that the workers should not be made to work for more than 8 hours a day. After this, it became an annual event and May 1 was celebrated as Labour Day.

In India, Labour Day was observed in the year 1923, in Chennai. This day was observed by the Labour Kisan Party of Hindustan. On this day, the communist leader Malayapuram Singaravelu Chettiar also asked the government that this day should be considered as a national holiday to symbolise the efforts and work of the workers.

This day is also known as Kamgar Divas, Kamgar Din and Antrarashtriya Shramik Divas in India.

Portugal Opens World's Longest Pedestrian Suspension Bridge, And It's A Trip

April 30, 2021 · 12:21 PM ET

RACHEL TREISMAN

The world's longest pedestrian suspension bridge has been completed in Portugal, and it's opening to the public on Monday.

The record-breaking bridge measures 516 meters (or roughly 1,692 feet) long, and is suspended 175 meters (574 feet) above a river. It's located in the town of Arouca — about an hour south of Porto — in the UNESCO-recognized Arouca Geopark, an area famous for its nature tourism and outdoor activities.

It connects the banks of the Paiva River, a popular destination for kayaking and white-water rafting. It's also located near the Paiva Walkways, a wooden pathway that winds through 8 km (5 miles) of the natural landscape.
