

The Indian National Congress (1885) Part-I

THE FIRST INDIAN NATIONAL CONGRESS, 1885.

Allan Octavian Hume, a retired civil servant in the British Government took the initiative to form an all-India organization.

The Indian National Congress was founded and its first session was held at the hall of the Gokuldas Tejpal Sanskrit College, Bombay in 1885.

Important Questions on INC???

- Who was the president in first session of the INC at Bombay in 1885?
W.C. Banerjee
- Who was the president in second session of the INC at Calcutta in 1886?
Dadabhai Naoroji.
- Who was the president in third session of the INC at Madras in 1887?
Badruddin Tyabji.