

ASSUMPTION_PART-I

Assumption

An Assumption is something which is assumed supposed and taken for granted when somebody says something he does not put everything and every aspect of his idea into which he takes for grant this may be defined as an assumption

Important Facts Related to valid

1. Assumption takes place before action.
2. Assumption are unobtained but not negative.
3. Assumption's validity should not be question because individual can think in many ways.
4. Read the statement and assumptions, if it makes sense then it is implicit.
5. For finding assumptions, we should ask "WHY" question from the statement, General awareness will be not used
6. An assumption is something that can be supposed or assumed on the basis of given statement.

