

Q.1-2. Fill the blanks with a suitable option.

Q.1. ESOP'S are _____ to reward employees who are major contributors to performance, thereby giving them a _____ in the company's bottom line.

- (1) discounted, right (2) proposed, debit (3) made, stand
(4) generated, catch (5) offered, stake

Q.2. Modern societies and economies tell us that money _____ happiness and hence we _____ away less to others and keep and spend more on self.

- (1) regains, charity (2) demands, offer (3) ventures, spare
(4) brings, give (5) arise, collect

Q.3-4. Spot the grammatical error if any in any of the parts.

Q.3. The strategy to let the states devise their own ways to acquire land, (1)/ hinted at by the government after the meeting of the Niti Aayog governing council,(2)/ might seem attractive in principle (3) but resolves nothing in practice.(4)/ No error (5)

Q.4. The SEBI should amend its new insider trading rules (1)/ that make it impossible for senior management members, (2)/ in possession of price-sensitive information,(3)/ to collect or sell their shares under employee stock option plans. (4)/ No error (5)

Q.5-6. Improve the underlined part of a sentence with suitable option if needed.

Q.5. Every place in the world that has capital punishment has to come back to one basic question: did we string up the right guy?

- (1) has to back (2) has to come back (3) has to coming back
(4) had coming back (5) No improvement

Q.6. Continued government highhandedness might now result in radio wave auctions for FM radio channels being put of.

- (1) channels be put of (2) channels been put to of (3) channels being put off
(4) channels be put off (5) No improvement

ANSWERS:

Q.1. (5)

Q. 2 (4)

Q.3. (5)

Q.4. (1)

Q.5. (5)

Q.6. (3)