

ERROR DETECTION

1. Mahatma Gandhi's entire life was one unrelenting experiment on truth.
No error
ANS-(b) Use 'an' in place of 'one'
2. As the thieves ran out of the bank they got into the gateway car which was waiting with its engine running No error
ANS- Use 'which' was left with its engine on'
3. The media of films has been accepted by all as the most powerful force that influences the younger generation. No error
ANS- Use 'young' in place of 'younger'
4. The French embassy employs him regularly as he knows to speak French No error
ANS- Add 'how' before 'to'
5. How it is that neither your friend Mahesh nor his brother Ramesh have protested against this injustice? No error
ANS- Use 'has' in place of 'have'
6. In India working woman lead a life of dual responsibilities if they are married and have a family. No error
ANS- Replace 'woman' by 'women'
7. Greatly to our surprise we find the ringleader was lame .No error
ANS- Replace 'find' by 'found'
8. They have played a game last week. No error
ANS- Remove 'have'
9. The teacher made the boys to do the sum all over again No error.
ANS- Remove 'to'
10. Many overseas students attend colleges in the Great Britain No error
ANS- © remove '-s' from 'students'
11. He asked her that whether she knew what has happened last week when she was on leave. No error
ANS- Remove 'that'

13. Please convey my best wishes back to your friend.
no error
ANS- Remove 'back'
14. The call of the seas have always found an echo in me. No error
ANS- Use 'has' in place of 'have'
15. Hardly I had left home for Mumbai when my son who is settled in Kolkata arrived without any prior information No error
ANS- (a) Replace 'hardly I had' with 'hardly had I'
16. Now, it can be easily said that the population of this city is greater than any other city in India No error.
ANS- Add 'that of' after 'than'

STUDENT'S CORNER

WAS THIS SESSION HELPFUL

?????