

ENGLISH SSC CPO/GD (SSC 02 FEBRUARY 2019)

FILLER

1. The e-commerce giant has had (A)/ to remove products from his (B)/ India site to comply with new rules. (C)/ No error (D)

Answer- (B) Use 'its' instead of 'his'

2. Kiran Bedi said the budget (A)/ has ensured transparency in transactions and (B)/ covered all sections of the society. (C)/ No error (D)

Answer- (B) Use 'had' instead of 'has'

3. The suspect who stole the (A)/ computer is described as a black man, about 5 feet (B)/ 10 inch tall and weighing about 210 pounds. (C)/ No error (D)

Answer- (C) Use '10 inches'

4. The British Council continually (A)/ seeks to enhance IELTS to improve the (B)/ experience to our test takers and stakeholders. (C)/ No error (D)

Answer- (C) Use 'experience for'

5. The benefits of computer (A)/ science extend far (B)/ beyond coding for any students. (C)/ No error (D)

Answer- (C) Use 'any student'

6. The world's most popular (A) high-stakes English language test for work, study and migration (B) can now take (C) on the computer. All correct (D)

Answer- (C) Use 'be taken'

7. Police typically do not release (A) the names of stores in its (B) videos on Facebook because they say it could affect the investigation. (C) All correct (D)

Answer- (B) Use 'their' instead of 'its'

8. The computer-delivered IELTS is now available (A) in New Delhi and first (B) test will be held on (C) the 9th of February, 2019. All correct (D)

Answer- (B) Use 'the first'

9. The wheelchair is able to be controlled (A) via Bluetooth with an android (B) phone and by a single-direction button (C) for her therapy. All correct (D)

Answer- (D) All correct

10. Police released (A) a video on their Facebook page of one of the suspects steal (B) the computer in the hope that someone will recognize (C) him. All correct (D)

Answer- (B) Use 'stealing'

11. The computer-delivered solution are secure and capable of delivering the world-leading security. (A) is secured and capable of (B) is secure and capable (C) is secure and capable of (D) No improvement required

Answer- (C)

12. A six-year-old girl with mental and muscular deficiencies received a special gift courtesy of STM computer science students. (A) receive a special gift (B) received specially gift (C) received a special gifts (D) No improvement required

Answer- (D)

13. The test taker is administered the same test but offered more choice. (A) is offered more choice (B) is offering more choice (C) is offered more choices (D) No improvement required

Answer- (A)

14. Test takers can now choose the option and time to take IELTS that best works for them. (A) choose the option (B) chosen the option and (C) choose option and (D) No improvement required

Answer- (D)

15. Police are searching for two men they says stole a $2,500 computer from a Natick Mall store late last year. (A) they said stole (B) they said have stolen (C) they said stolen (D) No improvement required

Answer- (A)