

ENGLISH (SSC 11 FEBRUARY 2019)

Find error?

1. It is harmful to take cupsful of coffee eight times a day.

Ans: Use 'cupfuls'

Compound noun tail term 'ful' take 's' to make plural.

2. He knows many languages but the German and the Chinese alphabet will be a problem for him.

Ans: Use alphabets which means language.

3. Her mouth watered when she saw a bouquet of grapes.

Ans: Use 'A bunch of grapes'

4. The customer handed over a hundred-rupees note to the shopkeeper.

Ans: Use 'A hundred-rupee note'

POSSESSIVE CASE

LIVING OBJECT

NON-LIVING OBJECT

1. By Using __'s/'

Rohan's car

The car of Rohan

Girls' college

Boys' hostel

Women's college

Jesus' life

For justice' sake

For goodness' sake

Compound Nouns

Brother-in-law's job

Father-in-law's health

Personified Objects

Death's icy hand

Nature's laws

Sorrow's tears

At death's door

Country or place name

India's future

Kanpur's water supply

The world's largest river

Time expressing words

A week's holiday

A month's absence

Five days' leave

Two hours' delay

Possessive with comparative/Positive

His car is faster than Mr. Gupta's

Mohan's sister is not as beautiful as Sohan's

The climate of Patna is better than that of Gaya.

Indefinite Pronoun

I have found someone's diary.

He likes nobody else's advice but mine.

Birds and Animals

Bird's feather

Cat's tail

Dogs' kennel.

EXERCISE

1. We should not avoid nature's laws.
2. A friend of Rahul was on the train.
3. The table's height is three feet.
4. Now a days, girls go to the beauty parlour for fashion's sake.
5. Ajay and Vinod's fathers are farmers.