

GURU मंत्र

DAY 02

13 JUNE 2018

ENGLISH

Q.1

It is indeed true that mere building of toilets cannot prompt people (A)/ to use them as there are lot of social, cultural and behavioural aspects attached to it, (B)/ what we need to learn from Bangladesh is how they have managed to bring down (C)/ opened defecation to less than 1% by 2016, from a whopping 42%, in a little over a decade. (D)

(B)- a lot of/ lots of

(D)- open defecation

Q.2

At the level of the bank, it is impossible to believe that only a handful of (A)/ employees has been implicated, senior management and auditors did not (B)/ track these problems transactions for years, the Reserve Bank of India did not (C)/ monitor banks properly and create opacity with new financial instruments. (D)

(C)- problematic

(D)- created

Q.3

All power grids requires balancing, this balancing entails meeting the (A)/ demand with adequate supply 24x7 ensure that (B)/ there is no blackout and the reason for striking this balance is that electrical energy cannot ready (C)/ be stored, it means that power generation ought to work round the clock.
(D)

(A)- require

(B)- to ensure

(C)- readily

Q.4

The 10 critical products that hospitals must be stocked to save newborns, (A)/ including a piece of cloth to keep a baby warm and close to the (B)/ mother to encourage breastfeeding and the list also including antibiotics and (C)/ disinfectants, the use of which can stave off killers like sepsis and meningitis. (D)

(A)- must stock

(C)- also includes

Q.5

Over the years, the issue of skyrocket tuition fees has (A)/ confronted parents, adding to their burden is the annual and (B)/ steep hike in tuition fees along additional costs (C)/ such as fees for transport, extra-curricular activities and sports. (D)

(A)- skyrocketing

(C)- along with additional

DAY- 2

GURUमंत्र