

ENGLISH SBI CLASS 09 APRIL 2019

Directions:

In the following questions (21-25) three sentences are given. Find the sentence/s which is/are correct both grammatically and contextually, and mark your answer accordingly.

21. A. Hundred years is a long time in a nation's history where regimes take shapes and falls.
B. Memories which are deeply etched in the psyche, start to fade away.
C. The 180-metre stretch of narrow road is forgotten today with few people living on its periphery.
1. A and C                      2. Only C
3. Only B                      4. B and C
5. Only A
22. A. Those contesting the upcoming Lok Sabha elections and even the prospective candidates will be given training on guidelines regarding the polls.
B. There are certain rules and regulations which many independent candidates are not even aware.
C. Moreover, there are many online initiatives which has been taken by the Election Commission of India (ECI).
1. A and C                      2. A and B
3. Only B                      4. B and C
5. Only A
23. A. Facebook, one of the biggest platforms of information circulation, has made an announcement yesterday regarding manipulation of information.
B. Many companies have sold our data to them who like to influence our political choices.
C. The CEO talked about the dangers of harmful contents that is threatening our individual and collective lives.
1. A and C                      2. Only C
3. Only B                      4. B and C
5. NOTA
24. A. Tens of thousand of singers and writers gathered at the County fair grounds in California, in June 1967.
B. The audience roared in appreciation when Hendrix played his guitar and it was one of his best performances.
C. The CEO talked about the dangers of harmful contents that is threatening our individual and collective lives.
1. A and C                      2. Only C
3. Only B                      4. B and C
5. NOTA

25. A. The Consumer Forum directed the Municipal Corporation to compensate the complainant for the inconvenience which he suffered because of the irresponsible behaviour of the Power officials.
B. The court rejected the plea saying that Mr. Sen was one of those debtors who had paid all his dues on time.
C. The human babies whose mothers had have flu during pregnancy have a chance of developing schizophrenia later in life.

1. A and C    2. Only C    3. Only B    4. B and C    5. NOTA

Directions:

In the following questions (26-30) a sentence with four highlighted/bold words is given with numbers A, B, C, D. Find out which word is incorrect, both grammatically and contextually, and mark your answer.

26. Using cash or any other mean (A) as an inducement to garner (B) votes in any election, whether (C) to Parliament, Assembly, or the gram panchayat, is a punishable offence (D) in India. All correct (E).
27. The minute we create a demonology (A) around Pakistan, we seize (B) to think rationally or creatively (C) about our own behaviour (D) in Kashmir. All correct (E).
28. The Kolkata Municipal Corporation introduced a waste segregation (A) project in 20 wards on Tuesday under which dried (B) waste will be recycled (C) while wet waste (D) will be used to make fertiliser. All correct (E).
29. For instance (A), Mumbai will witness (B) a "juloos" where close to 1,000 artists from different places and disciplinaries (C) will march (D) from Chaityabhoomi in Dadar to Carter Road in Bandra. All correct (E).
30. A day after the Board approved a resolution (A) plan for the beleaguered (B) Jet Airways' airline, its top bras (C) assured unexpected growth. All correct (E).
31. The circumstances (A) did not permit any peace talks (B) unless a firm commitment (C) was given about the withdrawing (D) of all support from across the border to terrorists. All correct (E).
32. Debt-laden (A) Jet Airways, which finally approved a provisional (B) resolution plan on Thursday, will need to raise (C) ₹3,000 crore by selling some of its aircrafts (D). All correct (E).

CLICK ON THIS VIDEO

