

ENGLISH SBI CLERK CLASS 19 APRIL 2019

57. We consider natural resources (A)/ only for rural communities but now it is (B)/ a major provider of livelihood options for (C)/ both urban and semi-urban populations (D). No error (E).
58. The vice-principal of the noted HK Arts College (A)/ in Ahmedabad has resigned after (B)/ the institution was prevented (C)/ to host an MLA at an annual event (D). No error (E).
59. Institutions of higher education have been (A)/ under attack in recent years (B)/ as the spine of an institution is (C)/ the people it consists (D). No error (E).
60. I can clearly understand that (A)/ it is nothing else than his ego (B)/ that is creating issues in business (C)/ with his childhood friend (D). No error (E).
61. NCERT has introduced a poetry (A)/ by former Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee (B)/ in a Class VIII textbook to immortalise (C)/ his contributions and achievements (D). No error (E).
62. Many have pointed out (A)/ how does Ms. Vadra resemble her grandmother (B)/ and evokes her memories (C)/ for people of India (D). No error (E).
63. The bank has a tightening monetary policy (A)/ but its stated aim of (B)/ controlling inflation and unemployment (C)/ have not been achieved (D). No error (E).
64. In response to the growing crisis (A)/ the agencies are urgently asking for (B)/ more contributions, to make up for its (C)/ sharp decline in purchase power (D). No error (E).
65. Often it is forgotten that (A)/ India is dealing with a complex Pakistan-sponsored proxy war (B)/ in J&K that began in early 1990 (C)/ with the expulsion of the Hindu community (D). No error (E).
66. Having recruitment pilots, aerospace engineers (A)/, electronics technicians, NASA is turning (B)/ the attention of its human resource department (C)/ to an unexpected profession (D). No error (E).
67. Though Mumbai is one of the (A)/ most populous cities in the country (B)/, the cost of living in Mumbai is more (C)/ than any other city in India (D). No error (E).
68. Managers of multi-national companies (A)/ frequently encounter situations (B)/ how they need to help (C)/ others solving problems (D).No error (E).

CLICK ON THIS VIDEO

