Q127. He was so tired (a) that he (b) fell asleep (c) on the bed fully dressed. (d) / No error (e)
Ans: (d) Use ‘fully dressed on the bed’

Q128. Most of us are not aware of the fact (a) that eating some varieties (b) of mushrooms (c) result in death. (d) / No error (e) Ans: (d) Use ‘results’

Q129. A legislation that restricts (a) the fundamental rights of (b) a citizen has (c) no legal force. (d) / No error (e)
Ans: (a) Use ‘The’ instead of ‘A’

Q130. If you do not know (a) the meaning of any word, (b) please see (c) in the dictionary. (d) / No error (e)
Ans: (c) Use ‘look up’ instead of ‘see’

Q131. A large scale exchange of nuclear weapons (a) will produce unprecedented (b) amounts of radiation (c) that can penetrate into the biological tissue. (d) / No error (e)
Ans: (d) Use ‘that can penetrate the biological tissue’

Q132. Lakshmi was sent away (a) from her home because (b) she spend most of the time (c) in the company of holy men. (d) / No error (e)
Ans: (c) Use ‘she spent most of the time’

Q133. The club members are (a) socially responsible and (b) take part in (c) variety volunteering activities. (d)/ No error (e) Ans: (d) Use ‘variety of’.

Q134. The panel appointed by (a) the government has recommended (b) the removal of these ambiguity (c) in the draft of the taxation law. (d) / No error (e)
Ans: (c) Use ‘ambiguities’ in place of ‘ambiguity’.

Q135. With the Reserve Bank of India handing out (a) licenses for new banks as well as (b) new types of banks such as Payment banks, (c) Public Sector Banks will face many challenges. (d)
/ No error (e)
Ans: (b) Use ‘licenses to’ in place of ‘licenses for’. 