

SBI EXAM

1. Knowledge

2. Speed

3. Confidence (Speaking + Motivation)

Grammar

Error Detection

Phrase Replacement

Sentence Connector

Reading Comprehension

Rearrangement

Match the sentences

Perfect Starter

Cloze Test

Fillers

Phrasal Verb

Homophones

Match the words

Misspelt

Comprehension

Vocabulary

Grammar

Comprehension

Vocabulary

10,000+

SPOT THE ERROR

- 1. There is finally good reason to be believed that (A)/ consensual gay sex may once again decriminalised. (B)/ The ongoing hearing before five-judge Constitution Bench of the Supreme Court indicates that (C)/ there is now a better appreciation of the need for equal constitutional protection to (D)/ all individuals without any discrimination which was the case in 2013. (E)

Answer-

(A) to believe

(B) may once again be

(C) a five-judge Constitution Bench

(E) than was the case in 2013

SPOT THE ERROR

2. The Centre stand was believed (A)/ to be critical when the current hearing was (B)/ began this month. The Union government is cautious (C)/ supporting the cause, and it has stopped (D)/ short of taking a categorical position. (E)

Answer-

(A) The Centre's stand

(B) Remove 'was'

(C) cautiously supporting

(D) but it has stopped

SENTENCE CONNECTER

- 3. Retail inflation rose to 5 per cent in June, a five-month high _____ easing food prices, government data showed on Thursday.

because of despite but whereas due to

Answer- (B) despite

HOME WORK

4. The Supreme Court resumed hearing (A)/ a batch of petitions challenging the validity of (B)/ Section 377 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) that criminalises homosexuality. (C)

5. The Supreme Court observed that homosexuality (A)/ was not an aberration but a variation and that (B)/ once Section 377 was decriminalised, the stigma attached to the community would also go. (C)

THANK YOU

&

BELIEVE IN YOU NOT OTHERS

DEPEND UPON YOU NOT OTHERS BECAUSE

ONLY YOU CAN BE TRUE TO YOU REST ALL ARE FAKE.