

1. APODICTIC (ADJECTIVE): of a proposition
Synonyms: unerring, dependable
Antonyms: faulty, imperfect
Example Sentence:
It is apodictic that inadvertent disclosures may work a waiver of the attorney-client privilege.

2. ASPERITY (NOUN): hard to endure
Synonyms: harshness; bad temper
Antonyms: contentment, sweetness
Example Sentence:
I dread the asperity of northern winters.

3. BEATITUDE (NOUN): a state of supreme happiness
Synonyms: bliss, ecstasy
Antonyms: sorrow, misery
Example Sentence:
His face had taken on the expression of imbecile beatitude.

4. CAPRICIOUS (ADJECTIVE): changeable
Synonyms: erratic, fickle
Antonyms: constant, predictable
Example Sentence:
He is known for his capricious behavior.

5. CAPTIOUS (ADJECTIVE): fault finding
Synonyms: very critical, carping
Antonyms: encouraging, praising
Example Sentence:
A captious attitude often causes difficulties in a relationship.

6. CHOLERIC (ADJECTIVE): easily moved to anger
Synonyms: irritable, peevish
Antonyms: cool, calm
Example Sentence:
Men of the choleric type take to kicking and smashing.

7. DENOUEMENT (NOUN): the unraveling of a plot or story
Synonyms: conclusion, finale
Antonyms: opening, start
Example Sentence:
The denouement of the show was unbelievable.

8. DILATORY (ADJECTIVE): slow to act
Synonyms: procrastinating, lingering
Antonyms: eager, zealous
Example Sentence:
His attendants are dilatory to serve their master.

9. EXTEMPORE (ADJECTIVE): with little or no preparation or forethought
Synonyms: offhand, impromptu
Antonyms: dark, thick
Example Sentence:
He is a great extempore dancer.

10. LUMP (NOUN): clump, mass
Synonyms: knot, chunk
Antonyms: little, individual
Example Sentence:
The batter turned into lumps.

Write us-
content@mahendras.org